SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

The Eureka Union Elementary School District and the Placer County Sheriff's Department are co-hosting a school safety seminar on Tuesday, May 22, 2001, from 9 a.m. to noon at the school district offices in Granite Bay.

The featured speaker is Jack Drown, the undersheriff of San Diego County. Undersheriff Drown will be presenting an overview of the recent school shootings at Santana and Granada Hills High Schools.

Placer County school administrators and law enforcement officials throughout the region are invited to attend. Press interviews will be available.

The seminar is designed as a prevention and information-sharing forum for school and law enforcement officials. It is NOT open to the public since some of the information may be used in pending prosecutions in San Diego County.

Anyone interested in attending must call the Sheriff's Department at (916) 652-2400 to reserve a space.
